There is nothing under the EA that directly affect the GOC, so would let the organisations gaining authorities under the EA to weight in on this one.

Subject: Need your brains please...

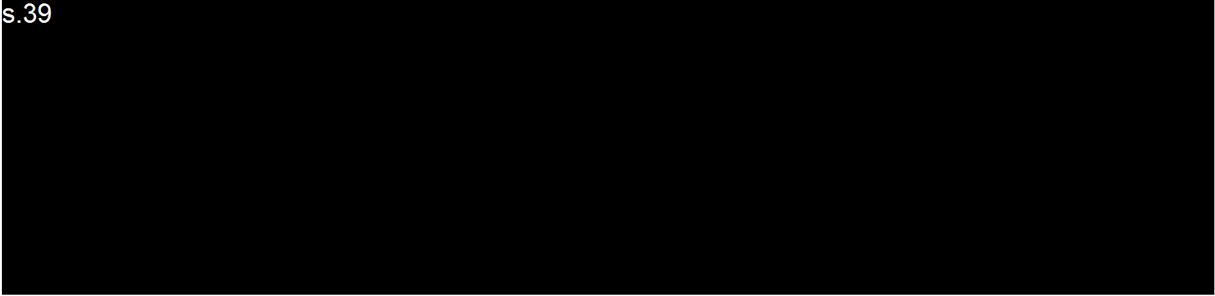

Good evening,

Senior level meetings continue daily at the DM and Ministerial level related to the ongoing protests and EA. Following today's meetings, there are a couple of outcomes, and we have been asked to look into the following one in particular:

s.39

A large black rectangular box redacting the content of the email body below the 's.39' reference.

s.39

Open to any and all ideas (and feel free to reach out to others).

We're going to need these tomorrow, so any brainstorming you're up to doing on a Saturday night/Sunday morning, let me know if you come up with anything worth flagging to Rob. 😊

Thank you!

Dom
